Property Description

This stunning finca is located in Fataga and is made for the connoisseur of idyllic settings.

As soon as you pull through the gates of this impressive plot you are transported to a parallel world where peace and tranquility reign.

The main house is set on the plot of 37,000m<sup>2</sup> which is protected land destined for agricultural activity. The protected land status practically guarantees that the spectacular views will remain unaltered my man with the passage of time!

The finca was originally an important winery on the island and still has the wine cellar intact in addition to a third building with 3 further bedrooms which is in need of refurbishment.

A visit is highly recommended to fully appreciate how special this property is,
