Property Description

This house is located at the upper part of Adeje, called Las Moraditas. Las Moraditas is about 6 minutes drive from the historic centre of Adeje. Nearby there are all infrastructure, lots of supermarkets, such as Mercadona, Lidl, Super Trebol, Macro, several gas stations, pharmacies, schools, different sports centers, golf course, beautiful southern beaches and all this a short drive away. This house has an excellent location, outside the touristic center but close to anything you needed for comfortable life. All rooms of this beautiful house are distributed on two floors. The first floor consists of 2 bedrooms, large bathrooms, built-in wardrobes and beautiful balcony with its exit and panoramic views of the entire coast. On this floor there is also another room that is currently used as an office. Down the stairs, there is a spacious living room, there is a fireplace, which will provide you warmth and special cozy feeling in the winter, there is also a bar where you can spend time with friends, enjoying the landscape of the area from the windows. The kitchen is separate and offers you to enjoy cooking delicious dishes for the whole family. The dining room, storage room and other bathroom are also located on this floor. The house is very bright, due to the large windows in all rooms, which provide plenty of natural light and relaxing sea views. The house has a private garage for 2 cars, which is directly connected to the house. Its landscape oriented to the beautiful sea view, also will be able to offer you creating the garden areas or a small garden, build a swimming pool, barbecue or even a separate apartment. The price of house includes furniture. It is a real privilege to enjoy this special landscape of protected natural areas, the entire southern coast from Los Cristianos to Playa Paraiso and the Atlantic sea to the nearby island of La Gomera! It will be great to accompany you in visiting this beautiful house and help you with buying process! [IW]
