Property Description

Modern, open and luminous is the flat that Gilmar presents on this occasion with a very modern design, all exterior and on a corner. A terrace of around fifty square metres borders the façade, communicating with the interior through three points, the two bedrooms and the living room. If anything stands out in the house it is the space, in fact the master bedroom corresponds to what before the renovation were two bedrooms. The living room, dining room and kitchen can be considered a unique and very pleasant room with the opening to the terrace. Its location is exceptional allowing access to all kinds of services and means of transport with absolute comfort. One street away from the commercial area of Mesa y López and only five hundred metres away from Las Canteras Beach, Alcaravaneras and the Nautical Club. If a parking space is needed, the area offers different alternatives to rent for approximately ninety euros.
