Property Description

The house has a ground floor where there is a 46m2 terrace, behind this terrace is the house composed of a living room, three bedrooms, bathroom, separate kitchen and a laundry room. At the top of the house there is a second independent apartment which is accessed from the main terrace, but it is also connected to the house below by internal stairs that are currently closed to make these two independent houses. Costa Calma is one of the most visited tourist centers in Fuerteventura, about 60 km away. South of the Airport, it has impressive beaches with fine sand and turquoise waters and a wide range of activities for all types of activities such as diving, snorkeling, surfing, windsurfing, kitesurfing, etc. This town has all the necessary services; school, medical center, bus station, gas station, cafes, restaurants, shopping centers, and it is the greenest area of the island with a kilometer-long promenade filled with palm trees, trees and native plants. This home offers, due to its location, the perfect tranquility for rest and at the same time it is close enough to everything for a comfortable and pleasant daily life.
